

SUPER SWINGING SPECIAL

SICK

mac
35¢
MAY
No. 83

SCENE-SPLITTING TRIP:
HIPPIE COMMUNES

GROOVIE MOVIE:
LITTLE PIG MAN

MIND-BLOWING TEST
HOW SICK ARE YOU?

ATOMIC COMIC:
DON RICKLES

Head of the Hoffman Family

FOR 100%
PROOF
SEE
MOVIE REVIEW
PAGE 28

Old Grand-Dustin
Head of the Hoffman Family

Old Grand-Dustin

SICK

May 1971 No. 83 Volume 11 Number 3

CONTENTS

Sick Sick World .....	6
SICK's Guide To Hippie Freaks .....	8
Sick As It Seems .....	10, 46
SICK Visits A Typical TV Game Show .....	11
Guess The Operation .....	13
Horoscope For Losers .....	16
Comedian Of The Month: DON RICKLES .....	18
Adolf Hitler Song Book .....	19
Advertising On Postage Stamps .....	22
How Different Institutions Are Fighting Unemployment .....	24
Movie Review: LITTLE PIG MAN .....	28
How Sick Are You? .....	32
SICKtionary .....	34
Moonlighting Jobs .....	36
SICK Previews The New Groups .....	38
You Know You're Over The Hill When— .....	41
Hall Of Fame For Baseball Fans .....	42
SICK Call .....	44
A Look At HIPPIE COMMUNES .....	47
Pin-up Of The Month .....	CENTERFOLD
Graffiti Of The Month .....	IN THE MARGINS
Aggravation Of The Month .....	THIS WHOLE ISSUE

ABOUT THE COVER

This month's Super Swinging Special Front Cover was painted by JACK SPARLING. As you can see, it's a departure from the covers we've been doing. What you didn't see was Jack Sparling's departure from our staff for doing it!

Editorial Director
PHIL HIRSCH

Editor
PAUL LAIKIN

Circulation Director
RON ADELSON

Production Manager
HAL HOCHVERT

Associate Editors

Fred Wolfe, Bob Heit, Paul Lamont, Bill Quidort, Aron Mayer, Eden Norah, Gregg Axelrod

SICK is published monthly, except January, April, July and October by Hewfred Publications, Inc. Editorial and executive offices, 444 Madison Ave., New York, N.Y. 10022. Single copy, 35¢; subscription rate in the United States and possessions, $3.00 for 8 issues. Elsewhere, $3.60. Second-Class postage paid at New York, N.Y., and at additional mailing offices. Not responsible for unsolicited manuscripts and all material must be accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelope. Entire contents copyrighted © 1971 by Hewfred Publications, Inc., 444 Madison Ave., New York, N.Y. 10022. All rights reserved throughout the world under the Universal Copyright Conventions, the International Copyright Convention, and the Pan American Copyright Convention. Printed in the U.S.A.

Somebody
call for the Editor?

QUOTE OF THE MONTH:

— Marcel Marceau

DROP PAUL ANKA OFF THE SIDE OF A SHIP!

Sick
Ya

...I think SICK is a really cool mag. It's a real gas. If you don't print this letter, I'll cry.

Fain Minton
Owensboro, Ky.

If you don't stop writing letters on onion skin paper, WE'LL cry!

I had my father take a picture of me reading my favorite magazine, SICK. If you print it I'll buy a lot of copies.

Gregg Allen
Brooklyn, N.Y.

We'll do anything for a buck!

Our teachers are always telling us to stop reading SICK and pay attention to our school books. What should we do?

Chris McManus
Ricky Scarfo
Larry Henderson
Mark Weaver
E. Northport, N.Y.

Listen to your teachers. We didn't and look where WE wound up!

...now that I've said what I wanted to say, I'd like to see you put this whole letter, without being rewritten into your own words, in your magazine. Ha!

Leslie Fournier
Chicopee, Mass.

Next time don't write such long letters and we'll put it all in. And also, the same to you, Man!

In your February issue, I read the criticisms you made of some TV shows and almost fainted. How can you insult these programs when you can't do any better?

Jennifer Slater
Kenmore, N.Y.

Why can't you be original and stop repeating what everybody else is saying?

I hung up your hang-up calendar and I still don't know what day it is

I hung up your hang-up calendar and I still don't know what day it is today...

Dale Stuke
Long Beach, Cal.

It's a day you should see a psychiatrist!

THE SHOES OF THE FISHERMAN SMELLED OF HERRING!

RETAIL DISPLAY PROGRAM

Pyramid Publications is pleased to announce the adoption of a retail display program available to all retailers interested in earning a display allowance on those magazines participating in this plan. Under the plan, you will be permitted to select one or more of the following magazine titles, if desired: Sick Magazine, New Ideas For Hairstyling, New Ideas For Teens, Men's Magazine.

To obtain full details and a copy of the formal contract, please write to: Circulation Department, MacFadden-Bartell Corporation, 205 East 42nd Street, New York, New York 10017.

Under the retail display plan, in consideration of your acceptance and fulfillment of the terms of the formal contract to be sent to you upon request, you will receive a display allowance of ten percent (10%) of the cover price per copy sold by you. This plan will become effective as to all issues of magazine titles selected and delivered to you, subsequent to the date of the written acceptance of our display agreement when received and accepted by our national distributor, MacFadden-Bartell Corporation.

cerely
ours:

LOU ALCINDOR DRIBBLES!

WARNING: YOUR LOCAL POLICE ARE ARMED
AND DANGEROUS!

I thought your "School For Garbage-men" was a good autobiography of you...

Geoffrey Lederer
Springfield, Mo.

And we thought it was a complete waste!

I am a 13-year old, 6-foot boy who would love all the girls to write to me.
I have blonde hair and love cute girls from 11 on up.

Gary Strarup
El Campo, Texas

O.K. Now tell us, what do you think of cute girls AFTER 11 o'clock?

I'm writing to show my distaste for your slur on Neanderthals in your September issue. You should apologize to the United Cavemen Association!

James Nutter
Lebanon, Oregon

We apologize. But what are you—some kind of a nutter?

I'd like to adopt the 1971 New Years
Baby on the front cover of your February issue as a trademark for myself because it looks just like me.

Beth Roberts
Greensboro, N.C.

Permission granted. But only if you send us the same topless shot of YOU!

Thought your November issue was out of sight...

Walter Kosiba, Jr.
Uxbridge, Mass.

It was. All the newsdealers hid it!

I think your article, "SICK Reviews
The New TV Season," is really sick...

Bob Reichelt
W. Springfield, Mass.

It should be. The article was doctored!

Read what Agnew did this time!

ATTENTION MARTIANS:
There is no life on Earth as you know it!

Sick Sick

—IN-SICK-NIFICANT

Arizona: Scandal hits Indian reservation. Teen-age brave arrested for sending obscene smoke signals.

Washington: Nudity in the news! Senator claims that sex has spread even to the entertainment on a plane. States the lawmaker: "You wouldn't believe those nude scenes I saw—between the pilot and the stewardess!" (Talk about your friendly skies!)

Wall Street: Idealism hits the Establishment. Young stock-broker gives up high-paying job to volunteer for work in public service. Spends all his time plugging up the holes in Phyllis Diller's "see-through" dresses.

New Orleans: Automation to the rescue! A poor office worker wanted a large family, but couldn't afford it. So he had one child and made five Xerox copies.

United Nations: International repercussions? Rumor has it that Twiggy is suing the U.N. for being declared an underdeveloped area.

Chicago: Local playboy explains reasons for his latest divorce: "My wife joined a kennel-club and won three blue ribbons—and she doesn't even own a dog!"

Haight-Ashbury: This way-out world. Two weird-looking guys with long beards registered in the same motel room as Smith. And when the house detective broke in, he caught them in the act—they were making cough drops!

Austria: Famous Viennese psychologist Sigmund Froot gives advice to the love-lorn: "Remember, he who wears his heart on his sleeve, must be careful while wiping his nose!"

Greenwich Village: Who says it pays to be nice? A hippie got into big trouble by offering a vice-squad cop his sleeping bag for the night—her name was Zelda! (He's now doing five to ten.)

Madison Avenue: A consumer survey noted that sales of "Uncle Ben's" rice were falling off in white sections down South, until they changed the name to "Uncle Tom."

Amalgamated Press: Flash! Rumor has it that Martin Bormann is organizing a Panzer division in Argentina. He heard that big bands are coming back!

Berkeley: Campus cut-ups. A female art student was so strongly influenced by Van Gogh, that when her boy-friend asked for her hand—she mailed it to him!

Iowa: Did justice triumph? A man was arrested just because his dog was chewing on a bone. Unfortunately, it was still attached to the mailman's leg.

San Francisco: There's one born every minute. When asked if he'd like a good seat to see "Hair," a fellow

World

by
FRED WOLFE

"Those wedding bells are breaking up that old gang of mine!"
— POPE PAUL

NEWS OF THE MONTH—

slipped a scalper 16 bucks—and ended up in a barber-shop.

St. Louis: An executive of a new low-priced non-scheduled airline was asked the difference between first class and economy flights, and replied: "With first class, you get to ride inside!" However, things are looking up for the airlines. A guy got on a flight—left the plane—and hijacked the stewardess.

Atlanta: Much-married heir, Humphrey Hotbottom, says that this time it's the real thing: "The first time I kissed my wife, I heard bells ring—she was a sparring partner in a gym!"

Detroit: Today, Ralph Nader came up with a sure-fire way to prevent your car from being stolen—sell it!

Sing Sing: It Ain't Necessarily So Department: When they strapped a convict into the electric chair, his last words were: "Who says seatbelts save lives?"

Mayo Clinic: A leading physician states: "With all those chemicals they're putting in food, you don't know what kind of dangerous side-effects you'll get. A friend of mine ate some converted rice, and overnight, he changed from a Jew to a Catholic!"

Las Vegas: Talk about your phenomenal luck! A young girl was working a machine all day, and every five minutes she came up with three lemons or three oranges. Didn't win a dime. She was a waitress at Nedick's!

New York City: The age of specialization has taken over. There's a mugger going around town wearing a surgical mask—he only robs doctors!

Encino: Education note. Sex Education is making schizophrenics out of parents. They worry if their kids flunk, and they worry even more if they pass.

Fire Island: Liberace cast the deciding vote on the town council that will permit local cops to direct traffic with a wand.

Broadway: A shapely young lady had her clothes torn off, was stripped nude and forced to display herself on 42nd street, but made no complaint. She was auditioning for a role in "Oh! Calcutta!"

Palm Beach: Now It Comes Out Dep't.: The guy who taught Spiro Agnew to play golf is the same one who writes his speeches!

San Francisco: Abbie Hoffman surprised everybody by going down to his Draft Board to volunteer. But they turned him down. They said they had enough men working on the Draft Board.

Philadelphia: Flash! Moderate student protesters of the Vietnam War are boiling their draft cards!

HOWARD HUGHES IS OUT OF SIGHT

Have you noticed how hippies have gotten weirder and weirder lately? In trying to outdo each other, they've really gone way way out. In fact, a lot of them have become real freaks. So, like, you should know who's who and recognize them, we've come up with...

SICK'S GUIDE TO

as conceived by HOWARD TAYLOR

IRONSIDES WHEELCHAIR HAS TRAINING WHEELS!

HIPPIE FREAKS

A is for Acne
Boils, warts and pimples,
They've got 'em all over
Even in dimples.

B is for Bread
Mazuma and loot
They get by without it
They don't give a hoot.

C is for Crud
They collect it with pride
They throw it from rooftops
And then run and hide.

D is for Drugs
They're high as the sky
Without any wings, Man,
They really do fly.

E is for Establishment
The scene they hate most They'd like to destroy it
From pillar to post.

F is for Freak-Out
At rock scenes and festivals
They let it all hang out
From crannies and vestibules.

G is for Guru
High Priest with a beard
He is their leader
But he too is weird.

H is for Hallucinate
In which the mind blows
They sit and they ponder
Their navels and toes.

I is for Individualism
The non-conventional game
Each tries to be different
But all look the same.

J is for Junk
Any pill that's in reach
These dudes'll smoke anything
From pot to hashish.

K is for kicks
Real weird kooky action
Some leap out of windows
And wind up in traction.

L is for Love Beads
Sandals and sacks
They wear 'em at Love-Ins
While flat on their backs.

M is for Maniacs
They're pretty wild freaks
They should be in circuses
Working as geeks.

N is for Non-Violent
Peace is their lot
They hold demonstrations
In which they get shot.

O is for Orgy
They get in the swing
They don't need a date
They do their own thing.

P is for Pimples
They itch and they're smellers
The girls they all have 'em
And so do the fellers.

Q is for Queer
Some of them swish
When they stand together
Can't tell which is which.

R is for Riots
Which the hippie freak digs
He can throw all his garbage
On fuzz and on pigs.

S is for Sick
When you don't feel so hot
These are the times
That you didn't go to pot.

T is for Trip
Which takes all the meek out
But they go too far
And really do freak out.

U is for Uplight
Real strung out and bugged
The only time they're not
Is when they are drugged.

V is for Vomit
It's good for the soul
They say it looks groovy
On a rich lady's stole.

W is for Weirdo
Their whole stock in trade
The weirder you look
The more you got it made.

X is for eX-hibitionism
They're see-thru-clothes-riden
The way they dress now
Leaves nothing un-hidden.

Y is for Yogi
A cat on a kick
With all his contortions
He's gotta be sick.

Z is for Zen
And heavy concentration
They all sit and meditate
Then blow up the nation!

SICK AS IT SEEMS

HISTORICAL ODDITIES

SIR WALTER RALEIGH DIED OF LUNG CANCER!

SHORTLY AFTER INTRODUCING
TOBACCO TO THE NEW WORLD.

TOBACCO ROAD

CONFUCIUS HAD A BIG MOUTH!

敬口!

(THIS ACCOUNTED FOR HIS MANY SAVINGS.)

LADY GODIVA'S HORSE MADE A PILE ON WALL ST.!

AND FOR YEARS
HIS FRIENDS CLEANED UP AFTER HIM!

GOD CREATED THE POTATO CHIP!

ONLY HE COULDN'T STOP AT ONE,
SO HE CREATED ANOTHER...
AND ANOTHER...

RICHARD THE LION-HEARTED

WAS THE WORLD'S FIRST HEART
TRANSPLANT

FLUSH THE HOLLYWOOD BOWL!

WHICH CREATED A BIG ROAR IN ENGLAND AT
THE TIME!

Along with soap operas, old movies and last year's reruns, daytime TV is the scene of yet another important form of programming—the game show. This is very popular with both young and old alike. And so, to see what makes these shows tick, SICK sent its roving reporter, Aron Mayer, to the actual taping of one of the more successful game shows on the air today. Here then is the report he brought back as...

SICK VISITS A TYPICAL TV GAME SHOW

The Who, What or Where Game*

Hi there, my name is Art James, and here's how we play our game. The rules are simple: Each of our 3 players has $125 to bet on 10 different categories that make up 1 of our 5 weekly shows. Each category has 3 different parts—who, what or where—with 3 different odds on each, like 2 to 1, 4 to 1 and so on.

Each player declares which part he's going for. For example, Player 1 bets 30 at 4 to 1 on What. Player 2 bets 60 at 3 to 1 on Where. And Player 3 bets 85 at 10 to 1 on Who. Got it so far?

Now...if 2 or 3 of our players bet the same amount on the same category it goes to auction. For example, if Players 2 and 3 bet 35 at 6 to 1 on What, then they...they just...they...

Oh, never mind, forget it! I can never remember these rules anyway. So let's get on with the game. Our first category is...FAMOUS HIMALAYAN MONKS!

I'll bet $35 on WHO...and a quarter on the side to make it interesting!

Give me WHAT for $60...and hurry, I'm on another show in 20 minutes!

I'll take WHERE for $82.50...only 'cause I don't know WHY!

O.K. now...POT LUCK!
You can bet all you have on our final category...ET-RUSCAN MYTHOLOGY!
What am I bet?

Think I should tell 'em
we've been off
the air eighteen minutes?

WHO
for $1,275!

WHAT
for $8,843!

HOW COME
for $1.98!

On the air only a relatively short time, The WHO, WHAT or WHERE Game is already firmly entrenched as the Number 3 top game show on the NBC schedule. Even its parlor-game version, which you can pick up at most toy or department stores, is selling like crazy. The idea for the show was created out of the mind of its Executive Producer, Ron Greenberg, who also produced such memorable game shows as Let's Play Post Office, Reach For The Stars, Dream House and dozens of others. What makes the WWW Game successful is that its premise appeals to a basic human instinct, the gambling one. This, coupled with the need to gather information. It seems that the more basic a need a game show satisfies, the more lasting its appeal. There are shows on the air right now that thrive on greed and lust and, to some degree, sin. About the only thing left for the future are game shows premised on the most basic of human situations. Real slice-of-life stuff. Realism carried to its infinite degree. And so, SICK makes the prediction...

IF THE TREND CONTINUES,
WE MAY SOON BE SEEING MORE REALISTIC TV GAME SHOWS LIKE...

THE NEW MEDICAL GAME SHOW GUESS THE OPERATION

Script by Don Segall

Art by Jack Sparling

THE MAFIA IS AN "ESTABLISHMENT"

Hi out there, my name is Johnny Cussin'!
Welcome to GUESS THE OPERATION
—the game show in which you can win the operation of your choice if you stump our panel, who will try to guess what kind of an operation is being performed right here on our stage!..

In just 60 seconds our team of surgeons will be performing a real live operation right before your eyes. The panelist who thinks he knows what for, presses the buzzer and takes a guess. If he answers correctly, the patient will be removed and another brought in. If nobody guesses correctly, the viewer who sent in the idea for this operation wins a whole barrage of exciting prizes to be announced. O.K. everybody? Ready... get set.

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL HERNIA FOUNDATION!

... GO!!

All right now, our doctors have started the operation. Just press the buzzer when you think they know what they're doing. Our first clue is...this operation is a matter of life and death!

O.K. HOLD IT! There's the buzzer! STOP THE OPERATION!

B-ZZZZZ

Panelist Number One
GUESS THE OPERATION!

Gall Bladder!

WRONG! ...
That's one down and two to go!

O.K. they're starting the operation again Our second clue is...they're removing a vital organ!

Watch carefully now, panelists.
Look at all the incisions! Look at all the blood! Take a wild guess!

There's the buzzer... STOP THE OPERATION! Panelist Number Two.. WHAT IS IT?

Kidney Stones!

Close! ... but still not it! Better luck next time!

Let's start the cutting again!
Our third and final clue is the patient is now in a coma!

There's the buzzer again... STOP THE OPERATION!... CUT THE OXYGEN!... PULL OUT ALL THE PLUGS!!

Panelist Number Three... GUESS THE OPERATION!

Prostate Gland!

I'm sorry, but that's a wrong guess!

None of our panelists have guessed it... so let's hold up the card and see the answer! And the answer is...

... a TONSIL operation!

Oh, no! I was going to say that!

How stupid of me!

He needed it like a hole in the head!

I'm sorry, panelists, you failed to guess it so Mrs. Verna Klotz of Jersey City, who sent in the idea for this operation wins the operation of her choice! Plus these fabulous prizes...

an exciting weekend for two at any city hospital... a brand-new 1971 Iron Lung... a portable oxygen tent with Miami air inside... a complete line of the latest bedpans... and a year's subscription to SICK!

Tune in tomorrow for another fun-packed life-and-death struggle on America's zaniest new game show... GUESS THE OPERATION!

An ideal month for travel. Start by going to Mexico and drinking the water. Then ride in an open Volkswagen thru the streets of Tel Aviv. Walk off the plane in Moscow holding a camera. Take a weekend vacation in Hanoi. Go to Peking and tell them Chiang-Kai-Shek sent you. Rent a bungalow in the Okefenokee Swamp. In between you might hijack Air Force 1.

Discover new foods this month. Go in a forest and eat exotic-looking mushrooms. Walk into a Jewish Delicatessen and order pastrami on date-nut bread. In between, nibble on ten-day old bread. Eat a big can of tuna fish. Open up a box of cyclamates. Wash it all down with a quart of Sneaky Pete. To top it all off, you should start smoking again. Non-filtered cigarettes.

ARIES

March 21-April 19

PISCES

Feb. 19-March 20

The month for fresh air and exercise. First take a good whiff of New York City air. Then go for a swim in the Hudson River. After that, jog across Fifth Avenue during the Lunch Hour. Finally, get yourself a rubdown by a masseur whose wrists limp. Now you're ready for some real exercise. Go take a long walk off a short pier.

AQUARIUS

Jan. 20-Feb. 18

CAPRICORN

Dec. 22-Jan. 19

The month to try new things. Fly a kite in a thunderstorm. Walk under a ladder in a cement factory. Light a match to examine a gas tank. Shave with a rusty blade. Dive into a vat of Jergens' Lotion and soften away. Walk along a railroad track. Steal a famous painting from a museum and then try to sell it. Last of all, don't cheat on your Income Tax.

SAGITTARIUS

Nov. 22-Dec. 21

The offbeat is this month's theme. Go sell Angela Davis a ticket to the Policemen's Ball. Walk into an Antique Store and say, "What's New?" Buy Polaroid stock, hold it for ten seconds, then sell. Get a job as window-cleaner in a submarine. Or night watchman in a Day Camp. Or social director on a tugboat. Finally, join the B'nai B'rith and the Ku-Klux-Klan at the same time.

The month to assert yourself. Go over and call Joe Frazier chicken. Then call Muhammad Ali "Whitey." Knock on Frank Sinatra's hotel room door and complain about the noise. Go to the aid of a mugging victim in a dark alley. Take the bull by the horns, even tho' you find you can't get milk that way. Finally, when the holdup man asks for your money—don't give it to him.

Horoscopes to show people win in the game there are so many figure somewhere in signs that govern their

HORO FOR L

Script by JOE NIERNAN

SCORPIO
Oct. 23-Nov. 21

TAURUS
April 20-May 20

A good month for business. Go out and buy 30 shares of Edsel. Also Trans-Cuban Airline. Invest in color radio. Buy up 1952 Calendars in case that year ever comes back. You might also buy up land in the Florida Everglades. Open up a chain of empty stores. After it's all over, relax. Take an ocean voyage. Book passage on the Andrea Doria.

GEMINI
May 21-June 20

This is the month to live dangerously. Take a stroll thru Central Park at night. In the daytime, stroll thru Harlem wearing a Maddox button. Go to Texas and put yourself in protective custody of the Dallas Police. In Washington, D.C., sit in the balcony of the Ford's Theatre on Lincoln's Birthday. Then play Russian Roulette with six cartridges.

CANCER
June 21-July 22

This month is one for pleasure. Start by traveling with the upper set. The lower set leave home in a glass of water. Be seen in all the best places by joining a Nudist Camp. Make a date with Phyllis Diller. Get kissed on the cheek by a Mafia chieftain. Make an obscene phone call to J. Edgar Hoover. Dress up in a blue suit, blue tie, blue hat, blue coat, brown shoes.

LEO
July 23-August 22

The friendship month. Invite your mother-in-law for the week. Help an old lady across the street—even if she doesn't want to go. Make friends with the teenage gang coming at you from the alley. Rescue a puppy in the middle of the street and get arrested for jaywalking. Finally, get a fur coat for your wife. Or some other trade such as that.

VIRGO
August 23-Sept. 22

The age of new adventures. Park your new car in the ghetto section of town. Have thieves steal your car but leave your hubcaps. Buy that mink stole from the guy in the alley. Don't pay your loan shark back. Fail your Wasserman Test. Go to the zoo and feed the pigeons—to the lions. Burn your draft card—while it's in the office of your Draft Board.

LIBRA
Sept. 23-Oct. 22

This is the month to buy things. Go out window shopping and buy three windows. Buy up Bert Parks recordings. Buy this month's winning lottery ticket, but lose it an hour before the drawing. Get on a neat kick and buy a lot of newspapers to put under the cuckoo clock. Finally, buy yourself a strait-jacket. To pay for all this, try borrowing money from a friend.

END

are always how to written of life. But since losers around, we the stars there are lives. Like maybe this

SCOPE LOSERS

Art by TONY TALLARICO

PROFILE: Don Rickles

TINY TIM IS A MEMBER OF THE OPPOSITE SEX!

Whattaya lookin' at, dummy?
Whattaya readin' this garbage for? Huh, dummy? Go to your room! You're really sick!

DON RICKLES is a unique phenomenon in show business. Master of the "put-on insult" he has few peers as a laugh-getter. Very few comedians, if any, would dare engage in a battle of wits with him. His rapid-fire trigger-mind cannot be matched and you might as well just sit back and take it with a laugh. Which is what everybody does.

Although most of his remarks are ad-libbed, Don has a few "stock" insults which he frequently uses, and which are his favorites. For example, he will ask somebody in the audience his name and while the poor guy is hesitating, not knowing what to say, Don will blurt out: "What's the matter, these toughies for you?" Or "Dummy, look at the name tag in your underwear!"

He sometimes asks a woman in the audience how many children she has and when she answers "Three" he yells "Wrong!" When somebody says they're from a small town like Ferguson, Iowa—Don will say: "I'll make you feel at home, SCUDDA-HAY, SCUDDA-HO!" Or sometimes: "Saturday night in Ferguson—Let's go down and watch the A&P truck unloading, Leo!"

Don's special targets are celebrities, some of whom he has razed unmercilessly. To Ricardo Montalban he said: "Don't stand so close to me. The flies!" To Rossano Brazzi he has uttered: "Are my shoes ready? All I needed were heels!" And to Johnny Carson he remarked: "I spoke to your mother in Nebraska, you haven't been sending the checks lately!"

Don's concluding remarks, usually in his nightclub turn, are equally as offensive. He winds up his act by saying, "I don't mean to offend anyone in the audience because of race or religion. I love all people. I don't care what a person's denomination is, I love them all. The Irish, the Jews, the Polish, the Puerto Ricans. (SLIGHT PAUSE) Well, maybe not the Puerto Ricans." Strangely enough, no one is offended and everybody goes away loving Don.

Born in New York on May 8, 1926, Don Rickles started out to become a serious actor, but soon found that he could generate big laughs. After a few inauspicious roles, he decided to switch to stand-up comedy. He first came into prominence in 1957 at the Sahara Lounge in Las Vegas. There he was discovered by a "horde" of celebrities which led to an appearance on the Johnny Carson show. He was so fantastic he became the most requested performer on that program.

Despite a short-lived series on ABC-TV, Don Rickles has proved to everyone what a multi-talented performer he is. Married to a girl named Barbara Sklar, Don has two children and relaxes by playing golf. You'll be hearing a lot about Don Rickles in the future. As if you're not hearing a little too much from him now!

Here's a real collector's item for you. Trash collector, that is. It's a rare document we turned up in Bavaria recently. Not Bavaria in Germany. Bavaria, a small town in Argentina. Where else, when it's called ...

THE ADOLF HITLER SONG BOOK

Heil Be Seeing You

Goering To Know You

Berlin' The Jack

Frankfort And Johnnie

Purge Of My Heart

Ho, Ho, That's Reich

Dancing Czech To Czech

Strike Up The Bund

Let's Go Deutsch Treat

Blowin' Our Axis

Cookin' With Gas

U-Boat Your Life

Fuehrer Me And My Gal

De CampBurn Races

Oh, My Achtung Back

I Love Those Dear Hearts And German People

God Blitz America

... and other big Nazi hits!

THERE'S NO FUEHRER LIKE OUR FUEHRER
(sung to "There's No Business Like Show Business")

There's no Fuehrer like our Fuehrer
Like no Fuehrer I know
Everything about him was appealing
Everything his troopers would allow
If he were back we'd all be out invading Another country, right now.
There's no leader like our leader
He'd dance, when he conquered France,
Once a month he'd line his staff
Against the wall
Then they would fall, he'd have a ball,
But when we served our Fuehrer
We were ten-feet tall
So let's get on with the show!

IT'S GETTING TO BE A BLITZKREIG WITH ME
(sung to "It's Getting To Be A Habit With Me")

Every country we took
It was like a storybook
It'd gotten to be a blitzkreig with me
One by one they just fell
Things were going very well
It'd gotten to be a blitzkreig with me.
Then all at once they stopped
Playing our song
First Monty at Alamein
And then at Stalingrad
The Fuehrer went wrong
And we went down the drain.
Then the Yanks made the scene
Which we thought was real mean
On D-Day they came
The Allied Infantry
And then we lost each country
One by one
It's getting to be a blitzkreig on me!

HELLO, JURY!
(sung to "Hello, Dolly!")

Hello, Jury!
Well, hello, Jury!
We're not guilty so, like,
Why'd you bring us here?
We don't know from slaughters
We just followed orders
And that Adolf clown's the one
To blame, he was so queer.
Man, there are none purer
But, like, our Fuehrer
Did commit the world's worst sin,
He didn't win!—So—
We are not guilty
If you say so you are filthy
So just find us innocent
And blame that weirdo Adolf gent
Jury, don't you lay that blame on me!

THE LUTWAFFE IS A FLOP
(sung to "The Lady Is A Tramp")

We flew to Belgium
Our bombs there to drop Hit them in Holland
Till they hollered "Stop!"
In Rotterdam we blew
Every rooftop
And yet the Lutwaffe is a flop!
In our cute Stukas
We'd blast-off in France
And open cities
That hadn't a chance
Hit smaller nations
We beat off their pants
And yet the Lutwaffe is a flop!
We got those small fry out of our hair
But one didn't scare
Win-nie, was he.
The R.A.F. blew
Our Lutwaffe's top
That's why the Lutwaffe is a flop!

ONCE IN LOVE WITH ADOLF
(sung to "Once In Love With Amy")

Once in love with Adolf
Always in love with Adolf
He's a doll, a sweetheart,
Really is a good man,
A gross misunderstood man, is he.
Adolf loves the people
All the Chosen People
Sick ones and the well ones
Never has them suffer
He puts them out of their ol' misery.
I never was a fickle-hearted Nazi Who'd blow cold and hot, see.
While in the clink I chanced to think
It over, and over, and still I'm sold!
Once in love with Adolf
Always in love with Adolf
Don't believe the hear-say.
He has some good ideas, see,
Like making soap from your dear ol' behind
So how come all the doctors say
I'm off my mind?

U-BOATS
(sung to "Heartaches")

U-Boats, U-Boats,
Just in my bathtub I sail U-Boats
I swear we never even sank one ship
Those crews you say we drowned
I'm sure just took a dip.
U Boats, U-Boats,
Our sailors never went on U-Boats
You're misinformed
I swear by Goebbel's truss
If you blame U-Boats on us!

IN THE CAMP WHERE YOU LIVE
(sung to "On The Street Where You Live")

I have often walked Through those camps before But I didn't know that Ilse Made those lamps before When I asked "What cooks?" I got dirty looks So forgive, I'm a clod, Let me live. I have often seen People shot before But I never stopped to Ask myself "For what?" before At the time I thought "My, what healthy sport!" So forgive, I'm a klutz, Let me live.	And oh!—those overworked chimneys How I laughed at all those Gas jokes I'd ask "Are those chimneys for Santa?" And they would answer "Santa just went up in smoke!" I had never thought People came to harm They were thin, but so are Women on a diet farm What is that you state? They lost all their weight From the camp where you live? Please forgive.
---	---

BLUES FROM THE FIGHT
(sung to "Blues In The Night")

Mein Fuehrer done told me
When I was in Youth Camp
Mein Fuehrer done told me "Son!
The world is a big place
And we'll rule it some day
But now the fighting is done
We're flat on our Axis
We haven't a thing
He's left us to sing
But blues from the fight.
Now the curtain's falling Adolf hear me calling 'Hooey!'"
(Mein fuehrer done told me)
We would be the masters
But you brought disasters "Hooey!"
Seig Hooey! Seig Hooey!
He got on this kick
Thought Russia he'd lick
Mein Fuehrer -
Hooboy, was he sick!

FOR FAST RELIEF FROM HEADACHE

Madison Avenue is always on the lookout for new places to advertise. Already we have ads on matchbook covers, shopping bags, lamp-posts, etc. There's one area, however, that hasn't been touched. Just think of all the people Madison Avenue would get to, if they had

ADVERTIS

STILL NO.

THERE'S A

CONTACT

Coke
IN THE HANDY

6

PACK

THE DRINK
THAT REFRESHES

ING ON

IN CASH

POSTAGE

IVORY

99

44
100 % PURE

IT FLOATS

STAMPS

Script by EDEN NORAH

Art by ARNOLD FRANCHIONI

SAVES BRUSHING AFTER MEALS

VARIETIES

23

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

PRESS RELEASE

Although some skeptics are saying that America is going through a recession, we disagree. Study the following Press Releases and draw your own conclusions, for example, as to

HOW DIFFERENT INSTITUTIONS ARE FIGHTING UNEMPLOY- MENT

by

MIKE ENDLER

and

MIKE WEINBERGER

Besides hiring the standard 40-man teams, coaching staffs, and front office executives, the N.F.L. has established many new job positions to help combat unemployment.

1. WATERBOYS WANTED. Waterboys will now come from the ranks of the unemployed. The age limit will be from 30 years and go up to a mandatory retirement age of 80.

All applicants must have some knowledge of water and must be good mixers. Unemployed bartenders need not apply.

2. SHORT TWINS OR TINY TRIPLETS WANTED. We have openings inside the big bear that runs up and down the sideline in Chicago. This position was left vacant when the Mangy twins expired during an inspiring half-time show called "Klondike U.S.A." First, the band formed a pack of wolves. Then, they ate the band's leader, gobbled up the bear and wiped out the entire end zone card section.

NOTE: The Mangy twins did not become Mangy until their second week inside the bear.

3. HANDICAPPED WANTED. We have openings for the handicapped. We need one one-fingered place kick holder, one one-legged place kick kicker, and three high handicapped golfers to join the Commissioner for his Sunday afternoon golf foursome.

GENERAL MOTORS

PUBLIC RELATIONS BULLETIN

Although we are laying people off right and left and cutting back production drastically, it is not because our profits are down or that people are not buying cars. It is for the good of the nation. We do not look at layoffs as putting hungry families out of work. We look at layoffs as fighting inflation. Remember, for every one person we put out of work, we create at least two others in related professions.

1. DONORS WANTED. Through our ingenious use of auto pollution we are keeping the hospitals full, increasing the traffic in our Doctors' offices and supplying much needed donors for heart, lung and liver transplants.

2. LAWYERS WANTED. We create the need for your greed. Oh, you lucky ambulance chasers. You knew our headrests would not put you out of business. We have just traded last year's whiplash for this year's concussion. In addition, we hope you realize that only two out of every three defective cars we call back actually come in.

3. ATTENTION BREWERS OF AMERICA: BARTENDERS WANTED. Let's face it. If we sometimes scare you, we mean to. Do you think for one minute we couldn't, with all our executive talent and money, engineer a safe and pollution-free car? Of course we could! But then people would not be afraid to drive and they would not need that "one more for the road" in order to calm their nerves. We create a demand for your services, and don't you forget it!

OFFICE OF UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

TO: ALL MEDIA

I am sure that a lot of you reading this release are asking yourselves how an agency that provides benefits to the unemployed can help fight unemployment. You know, we often ask ourselves the same question. The answer is, we provide jobs, that's how!

1. SPIES WANTED. Do you really think that we just give away money for free? Do you really believe that just because you work and pay for these benefits over thirty years of your life, you can get them now? Remember: "You don't get something for nothing!" The greater the percentage of unemployment, the greater our need for spies to check on you. When was the last time you heard about a layoff at the C.I.A.?

2. FORGERS WANTED. O.K. We give you all that money, but we also insist that you show up once a week to sign for it. We realize that we are being excessive and unreasonable. We do it to force you into hiring a forger who gladly signs for you, at a slight fee, of course. When he is signing, you are frolicking on that inexpensive little island off the coast of Florida.

3. HELP WANTED--ALL FIELDS. Face up to it. To be on the dole is demeaning. Your pride is hurt, your ego is assaulted and your manhood is threatened. How do you cope? You sign your weekly check plus twenty dollars you have to borrow over to your psychiatrist, whose business is up. The bank you borrow from is doing well, and so is the collection agency they send after you. And all those places need Public Relations men who send out nonsense like this. Bless you for my job!

PLAYMATE OF THE MONTH

A SICK HANG-UP

AS SELECTED BY MEMBERS OF
THE WOMEN'S LIBERATION MOVEMENT

HUGH HEFNER
(24-28-26)

MOVIE REVIEW

This month we review a movie that really exploded at the box-office. By this we mean, it was a big bomb! It's all about a little fellow who did everything there was to do in the Old West. So, because he over-indulged himself so much, we call him...

LITTLE PI

Between 1859 and 1879 I was a Cowboy, an hostess, an accountant, a midget, a buffalo, believe as much of this as you want.

* URBAN BEY IS POLLUTED!

G MAN

Written by FRED WOLFE

Indian, a used-stagecoach salesman, a dancehall and I tried to kiss General Custer. And you can

Like cool it, radicals! This film has nothing to do with a midget cop, but is the life story of a 121-year-old frontiersman who is actually 122, but lied about his age in order to get into the "Swinging Sceniles" bars. Dustin Hoffman portrays the leading role of Jack Crabb, the sole survivor of Custer's Last Stand. He escaped by claiming he was a buffalo waiting for a bus. The film, in flashbacks, is done with tongue-in-cheek. Although it would have come out a whole lot better, if it were done with film-in-camera.

Early in the movie, Hoffman and his family do a lot of travelling in a covered wagon. And after you see some of the ugly broads they brought along, you'll know why those wagons were covered! Onward, ever onward, they mercilessly hit the dusty trail—until they start getting complaints from some nutty Ecology group. Dustin's wagontrain invites some slightly looped Cheyenne Indians to join them in an outdoor barbecue. After killing the men, attacking the women, and taking the settler's scalps, Dustin starts to get suspicious.

But by now, it's too late—too late to make a T.V. Dinner—so Hoffman and the survivors are taken to the Indian village where they are all served hot dogs—namely, two Poodles, three Boxers, and a Doberman Pinscher. It seems roast dog is an Indian delicacy, and after they get through eating, the tribe doesn't burp—they bark! The highlight of the evening's entertainment is when Geronimo teaches his braves to leap off their high horses, crying: "Paratrooper!"

Dustin is eventually adopted by Chief Dan George who almost steals the picture (and everything else lying around loose) in the role of Old Lodge Skins, a Cheyenne chief who attempts to make him a brave. Which is a great trick, as Dustin is pretty chicken to begin with. Hoffman learns how to shoot a bow—with a six-gun. He also learns how to ride an Indian horse bareback—although occasionally, he puts on a pair of jockey shorts.

WILLIE MAWS HAS ATHLETES FOOT!

When Dustin decides to cut out from the tribe and rejoin the white-eyes, both he and the audience are in for a big surprise. "Clyde" might have got his but "Bonnie" still lives!—as Faye Dunaway suddenly appears as a preacher's wife (another brilliant piece of Hollywood casting!) However, she's still up to no good. Instead of a forty-five, she uses her body as a weapon—at least these parts will never jam on her! She first tries out her deadly equipment on an impressionable and slightly dirty 16-year-old Dustin Hoffman, whom she hand-bathes while singing: "Bringing in the Sheaves"—which strangely enough arouses absolutely no religious feelings in the kid. When her preacher husband finally dies Faye stays in there pitching—and this time she pitches it at Wild Bill Hickok. Now you know the real reason why he went wild!

Shortly after this, Hoffman joins forces with Martin Balsam, who plays Allardyce T. Meriweather (with a name like that, you just know he can't be all good) the snake-oil merchant who has a hook for a hand, a missing left ear, one eye and a peg-leg—all of which happened when Meriweather contradicted one of the gentle ladies at a Women's Lib convention. And to add insult to injury, his draft-board still took him! However, Hoffman doesn't come off much better attempting to peddle snake-oil in a plain paper bag—as the bag contains live rattlers. This causes a bunch of sore losers to tar and feather him. And he is only saved by the timely intervention of a near-sighted Colonel Sanders, who mistakes the feather-covered Hoffman for a giant chicken, and spends the rest of the sequence trying to pluck him.

At another juncture, Dustin becomes an Indian scout, but spends all his time scouting only female Indians. Whereupon, he receives hell from General Custer, but many thanks from Hugh Hefner who proceeds to stock up inventory for his clientele who go in for Early Americana. As a cavalry scout Hoffman is a loser, getting the Army stirred up every time he cries: "Sioux! Sioux!" After the entire regiment mounts up, they find out that Dustin is really crying: "Sue! Sue!"—from studying law part-time at the mission school of "Finagle, Finagle & Shyster."

One time, Dustin goes prospecting for gold with an old rummy named Charley, and they run into a big strike! Unfortunately, it's a mining strike, and months go by before Hoffman's partner finally strikes the Mother Lode—namely, Charlie's mother who was loaded—and she drops her gold teeth into Hoffman's lap from the wallop. True to form, trying his luck as a trapper, Dustin winds up getting himself trapped—into marriage—with a Swedish dish, a regular Smorgas-Broad named Olga. She's blonde, beautiful, and up for a major part in an "X-Rated" movie. However, bad luck continues to stalk our hero, for the stagecoach carrying him and his beloved is attacked by a band of hostile Indians and he ends up losing his wife. Gad!—What a crap game!

So it shouldn't be a total loss, Dustin returns to his original Cheyenne tribe and takes another wife named Sunshine, who lights up his tepee both day and night. By Indian law, he must also take care of a couple of her sisters. Dustin takes this command literally, turning this into the first hippie commune—Indian style. Which makes him and the sisters very happy, and also that part of the audience who happened to have missed "Bob & Ted & Carol & Alice." Just as things are really swinging, the square Establishment cavalry break up this arrangement—plus the head of every Indian they can find. And Hoffman is forced to flee, leaving his bags behind him—his wife and her two sisters.

At one point Dustin becomes a quick-draw artist. No, not a gunman—he draws instant portraits of tourists visiting the reservation. However, he strikes up a friendship with Wild Bill Hickok who gives him shooting lessons, and pretty soon he becomes a crack shot—shooting at every crack he can find. Nevertheless, this skill comes in handy when he becomes a buffalo hunter, knocking off eighteen buffaloes in one day. Which upsets the curator of the St. Louis Zoo, since that's where they were kept.

At one period in his life Dustin becomes a drunk, but is saved from a life of being a lush when his sister Caroline turns up. Caroline was supposed to marry a guy named Frank Delight, but when it came to the actual wedding day he turned into "Chicken Delight"—and had himself delivered out! After many such sad happenings, Caroline finally goes bananas, and her brother takes her to a frontier loony-bin. There she happily awaits the day when she believes she will marry Wild Bill Hickok. Unfortunately, she's got a long wait on her hands, as someone has shot Wild Bill in the back and the intended groom is a bit too dead to attend the ceremony.

The finale of the picture is Custer's Last Stand. Here Dustin high-handedly turns down additional support—not extra soldiers, but a truss! Richard Mulligan plays the part of George Armstrong Cus-

Onward to Little Big Horn, men, and don't take any prisoners!

ter, but obviously suffers from the delusion that he's Jack Armstrong, thus losing big to the visiting Indian team. Among them is Sitting Bull, who sat so long he developed hemorrhoids. And Crazy Horse, who everyone laughed at, until he came in first at the Kentucky Derby. But at least, Custer died with a joke on his lips—a very bad joke. When he saw all those Indians coming at him, he says: "Do they have reservations?" Let's face it, with material like that, he got off easy just being scalped!

CHICAGO 7 AMER A C

Welcome new blood-brother. Him help Indian much.
Him know
Jane Fonda.

SICK QUIZ:

HOW SICK ARE YOU?

TAKE THIS TEST AND FIND OUT

Script by Paul Lamont

Art by Tony Tallarico

SUPPORT DEAN MARTIN

Do you become grouchy and irritable without apparent cause?

YES() NO()

Do you usually have trouble getting off to sleep at night? YES() NO()

Do you get headaches often in the course of a normal day? YES() NO()

Does your face seem to get all flushed without provocation?

YES() NO()

Do you have no pep or energy to do things on your day off?

YES() NO()

Do you often find yourself with a great loss of appetite? YES() NO()

Does your blood pressure seem to go up suddenly at times?

YES() NO()

Do you sometimes get dizzy spells and then just feel faint?

YES() NO()

Do you get cold chills up and down your spine at odd moments?

YES() NO()

Do you find that many times you are unable to concentrate?

YES() NO()

- SCORING -

- If you answered all ten of the questions "NO" it shows that you're not sick at all. In fact, you're so healthy you should go see a doctor to find out what's wrong with you!
- If you answered half of all the questions "NO" it shows that you're a little sick. Also that you stand a good chance of getting worse if you don't watch out and see a doctor!
- If you answered none of the questions "NO" it shows that you're too far gone for medical aid. What you need is a strait-jacket as you're really sick for having taken this test at all!

THE NEW UNABRIDGED

SICKTIONARY

created by Professor ROBERT HEIT

A

ABUNDANCE: A dance done around a small pastry
ACCOMPANY: General Motors.
ADENOID: Bothered by addition
ADORE: A thing with a knob.
ADVERB: A verb used in TV commercials.
AFFORD: A car.

AGONY: Diseases of the knees.
ALAS: A misspelled girl.
AMPHIBIAN: Am not telling the truth.

AMPLE: Having enough PULL.
ANNOUNCE: One-sixteenth of a pound.
ANTIPASTO: Uncle Pasto's wife.
ARCHAIC: What we can't have and eat it too.
AROMA: A city in Italy
ASBESTOS: Incorrect grammar for "as well as"
ASPHALT: Placing the blame on a donkey.

ATLAS: Finally!
ATOM: History's first bad speller.
ATTIC: A noise a clock makes.
AUTOBIOGRAPHY: Car's life story written by itself.
AUTOMAT: Car rug.
AUTUMN: A stomach pill taken in the Fall.

B

BAA: Sound made by a sheep
BAAAAA: Sound made by a large sheep.
BABA: Sound made by two sheep.

BABABA: Sound made by a stuttering sheep.
BLAH: Chinese bra
BLABBERMOUTH: Abbreviation for BOARDWALK. (See Park Place.)
BONBON: Two boys.
BONEHEAD: (See EDITOR.)
BONFIRE: Fire used to roast half a bombon.
BRIDLE: A young female bride.

C

CABANA: Crash between a taxi and a banana.
CABOOSE: Sounds made by an angry taxi
CAMEL: An animal that can't advertise on TV
CANCAN: The backs of two chorus girls.
CANNONBALL: A dance at a church.

CANTALOUPE: Not allowed to run off and get married.
CARBUNCLE: Bunking into your aunt's husband with your auto.
CARNATION: A country of automobiles.

CASHEW: Gezundheit!
CELEBRATE: Have a party in the basement.
CENTPEDE: A penny-carrying caterpillar.

CHEAP: Sound made by an expensive canary
CHINCHILLA: An ice-pack on the lower part of the face.
CLAUSTROPHOBIA: Fear of a white-bearded man wearing a red suit.

PARENTS OF SIAMESE TWINS CAN FILE FOR A REPARATION

F

CONFIDENTIAL: Not lett anyone know you have f teeth.
COUNTERATTACK: A mugg in a luncheonette.

D

DEBATE: What you use to catch fish with

DECEASE: The oceans
DECEIT: The chair
DECODE: Da stuffed node.
DECREASE: The oil.
DEFEAT: The lower part of de body

DELIGHT: Debulb.
DELIVER: What Carter's pills are good for DESIGN: KEEP OFF DEGRASS.
DESOLATE: They're so tardy
DESPISE: The espionage agents.
DIAGNOSIS: Nostrils shaped like diags

DIMETHYLSULFOXIDE:
A chemical used whenever dimethylsulfoxide is needed.
DIPLOMA: The man who fixes pipes.

DIPLOMACY: The man who fixes pipes understands DISAPPOINT: Italian for "this spot."

DISCLOSE: As near as this.
DISMAY: In the Spring.
DONGDING: Sound made by a bell hung backwards
DUDE: Past tense of "do."

E

EDIT: Devoured the thing.
EEL: The back of a Cockney's shoe.

EERIE: An infant's hearing or gan.
EFFIGY: 500 bucks

ENDEAVOR: And always.
ENDOCRINE: The stopping of tears.

ENDORSE: The last finisher at Yonker's raceway.

EQUALIZE: Having the same organs of sight.
EVENT: He didn't stay.

F

FASTEN: Two quick basketball teams.

FATTEN: Two heavy basketball teams.

FEMININE: A women's baseball team

FIG: The inside of a newton.

FINANCE: Uncle's nice wives.

FRENZY: A tiny friend.

FRONTIER: The hearing organ closest to the nose.

FUDDY-DUDDY: A duddy shaped like a fud.

G

GARGOYLE: An ugly young lady from Brooklyn.

GLADIATOR: A cannibal's feeling after having a lady mission-ary.

GNOME: A city in Alaska.

GOBLET: A short sailor.

GRUESOME: Became a bit larg-er.

H

HALLUCINATION: A swinging country.

HANDICAP: A useful head covering

HARP: What Kangaroos do.

HATRED: Dislike crimson.

HILARITY: An hysterical beverage.

HOOTENANNY: Razz a goat.

HYPOTENUSE: The elevated kitchen utensil is functioning.

I

ICILY: I'm foolish.

IDEAL: My turn to pass out the cards.

IDENTICAL: I have many teeth.

IGLOO: I shine.

IGNORAMUS: Just watch Andy

ILLUMINATE: Sick of light

INFINITY: Floating forever in Lipton's

INNOCENT: An inexperienced penny.

INSINUATE: An adulterous meal.

INSOMNIA: During the warm part of the year

INTENSE: Where boy scouts sleep.

INVEST: Not in the East.

INVITE: How a bride is dressed

J

JOLLITY: A happy cup of Lip-ton's.

JUGHEAD: Run to the bathroom.

JUICY? Did you notice?

JULY? Didn't you tell the truth?

JUSTICE: Only what is present.

K

KETCHUP: Overtake.

KIDNEY: A child's leg joint.

KLUTZ: Seize; hold on to

KOOK: Make a meal.

Kyzyzyzy! A misprint.

L

LACKADAISICAL: To be without a daisical

LACKADAY: To have a six-day week.

LACTOSE: To be without the front part of your feet.

LISP: To thepeak like thith

LLAMA: A stuttering lama.

LOBOTOMY: My feet.

LOIN: To study in Brooklyn.

LOITER: Cockney for "not now."

LOLLAPALOOZA: Someone who has lost their lollapa

LUNGE: The meal between break-fast and supper.

LYMPH: To limp and lisp.

M

MAFIA: My anxiety.

MAGGOT: Mother has.

MAHARAJA: A prince with 4 A's.

Today a lot of people must have a second job in order to survive. These are called "moonlighting jobs" and most people take whatever they can get. Very often the type of work the moonlighter does in his second job doesn't quite fit in with his regular job. Sometimes they're in direct opposition. To show you what we mean, here are...

MOONLIGHTING JOBS

REGULAR JOB: Poverty Worker

GOLATH FELL FOR A NICE JEWISH BOY!

MOONLIGHTING JOB: Diamond Cutter

REGULAR JOB: Marriage Counselor

MOONLIGHTING JOB: Pornography Sales

REGULAR JOB: House Wrecker

MOONLIGHTING JOB: House Salesman

THAT DON'T MATCH THE REGULAR JOBS

REGULAR JOB: Police Sergeant

MOONLIGHTING JOB: Flower Arranger

REGULAR JOB: Undertaking Embalmer

MOONLIGHTING JOB: Circus Clown

REGULAR JOB: College Teacher

MOONLIGHTING JOB: Protest Leader

SICK PREVIEWS: THE NEW GROUPS

MAMA CASS EX HUSBANDY - A RE

Mt. Washington and Wilt Chan.

tain guide. The group recently climbed the Alps. Unfortunately they returned unscathed. The dog pictured is their mascot. He is looking for "His Master's Vice."

The BROTHERS MOTHERLESS

This group featuring mallets, steam whistles and the viola bastardas, records for the Sibling label. They are trying to hire Little Orphan Annie as vocalist, but Daddy Warbucks doesn't want her to drop out of obedience school.

The OUTBOUND WULFWS

These people are all related to each other and they deserve it. They get together every Thanksgiving to eat and play their music. It was so bad the turkey got up and left. They are known alternately as "The Mamas and Papas Plus Three" or as "that rotten group."

The ORGANIC REMAINS

This ensemble is composed of the remains of all the other group members after they freak out. Whoever's turned on and shows up, gets to blow. No wonder this group is high on the charts as well as every where else!

I NO LESSOR

LUTHER BUEFBANK WAS A FLOWER CHILD

You Know You're Over The Hill When...

...at the orgy they send you out for coffee!

...you chase after girls but can't remember why!

...your idea of going steady is your daily shot of prune juice!

...you go to topless restaurants for the food!

...you're not curious enough to see "I Am Curious, Yellow!"

...your idea of a wild sound is listening to the fizz of your Alka-Seltzer!

...the only thing that gives you a lift is your truss!

...you invite a girl up to your apartment to clean it!

...taking a "trip" means a taxi ride to your orthopedist!

...your blood gets so tired
you can't uncork your bottle of Geritol!

...your favorite reading is the obituary column!

...you find yourself taking short naps on an easy chair during New Year's Eve parties!

...your girl-friends start wearing surgical panty-hose!

...you start drag-racing with the guy in the next wheelchair!

...you drive to a motel with a girl and spend four hours just getting out of the car!

...your paunch gets so big you have to let out the shower curtain!

...you can't get up enough breath to whistle at a pretty girl!

...rain drops keep falling on your head because of a crease in your bald spot!

...the only thing that sets
your heart racing is your Pacemaker!

...you get high on Lawrence
Welk recordings!

...your toupee starts turning gray!

...the only "dates" you have got pits in the middle!

...your secretary has to give you a head start before you chase her around the desk!

WRITTEN By FRED WOLFE

We all know that baseball players have their Hall of Fame. But what of baseball fans—those millions of unsung heroes who attend ball games annually? Surely they've set a few records of their own, and deserve some kind of recognition. So, like, why not a

HALL OF FAM

Felix Smerley
Veree, Ill.
MOST TIMES YELLED "KILL THE UMPI"
DURING A DOUBLE HEADER
(596 TIMES—DUE TO FACT THE UMP WAS HIS WIFE'S LOVER!)

Quincy Furd
Watta, Mass.
MOST FOOD AND DRINK CONSUMED
DURING A SINGLE INNING
(823 FRANKS, 246 SODAS, 14 SCORECARDS
AND A BAT BOY!)

Casper Klinevine
Oola, La.
MOST TIMES WAVED AT TV CAMERA
DURING 4TH INNING STRETCH
(924 TIMES—UNTIL IT WAS LEARNED HE WAS THE TV DIRECTOR!)

Rhoda Finster
Dumm, Me.
MOST STUPID QUESTIONS ASKED
DURING A SINGLE GAME
(8,642 TIMES—LAST ONE BEING
"YOU WOULDN'T DARE STRIKE ME!")

ORPHAN ANNIE IS OUT OF SIGHT!

E FOR BASEBALL FANS

Script by BOB HEIT
Art by JACK SPARLING

Horace Crudd Mishu Ga.
MOST ITEMS THROWN DOWN ON FIELD
DURING A LOSING GAME
(68 MOLOTOV COCKTAILS, 49 BOTTLES,
7 ROCKS AND HIS 3 KIDS!)

Hans Blodgett Dingdong, Del
MOST SINGLE ERRORS COMMITTED
DURING AN OVERTIME GAME
(PILLING DRINKS, DROPPING FRANKS AND FALLING FROM STANDS TWICE)

Serge Umglick
Dirtie, Wash
MOST TIMES LEAPED TO FEET
AFTER A HOME RUN
(931 TIMES—ALL OF IT DUE TO A BLADDER CONDITION!)

Denzil Grovis Omyde, Pa.
MOST TIMES EJECTED FROM PARK
DURING AN ENTIRE SEASON
(522 TIMES—REMARKABLE CONSIDERING
HE ONLY ATTENDED 521 GAMES!)

SICK CALL

These hospital pot-shots are visual proof that doctors are among the funniest people in the world. If you don't believe us, just phone one late at night and tell him you've got a hundred and four fever, trouble in breathing, dizzy spells, palsy, and you think your heart just stopped. And he'll usually tell you to take an aspirin, call him in the morning, and let him know if anything really serious develops.

But, there is something about which doctors are very serious. Something that they hold sacred. Something about which they absolutely refuse to tolerate any nonsense—the bill they send you! And let's not forget the nurses. Those angels of mercy who stroke your forehead, coddle you like a wife, and kiss you goodnight. This they do for the doctors—not the patients.

by Fred Wolfe

There, we've done it!
The cork's out of the bottle.

He was at death's door this morning. I wonder what made him recover?

Doctor, why did you stop the operation?

I had no choice, nurse.
His health insurance ran out.

WILT CHAMBERLAIN SCORED 16 TIMES LAST NIGHT!

SICK AS IT SEEMS

JULIUS CAESAR

WAS TURNED-ON BY BRUTUS!

THE STAB WOUNDS HE DIED OF WERE REALLY HYPODERMIC NEEDLES!

LANGSTON

VASCO DA GAMA

WAS NOT HIS REAL NAME!
...NOR WAS HE SPANISH
...OR EVEN AN EXPLORER!

(ACTUALLY HE WAS
BERNARD MELMAN, AN ACCOUNTANT FROM THE BRONX, WHO WANTED TO IMPRESS A SCHOOLTEACHER WHILE VACATIONING IN MADRID.)

THE LEANING TOWER OF PISA DOES NOT LEAN!

IT IS STRAIGHT UP
AND DOWN...IT'S
THE CITIZENS OF
PISA WHO LEAN!

HENRY HUDSON

DID NOT DISCOVER
THE HUDSON RIVER!

HE DISCOVERED
THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER...BUT THAT ALREADY HAD A NAME!

SITTING BULL HAD HEMORRHOIDS!

(WHICH MADE IT DIFFICULT FOR HIM TO STAND UP!)

A SICK REPORT

Communal living is becoming more and more popular in our society. Yesterday's hippie, who used to vegetate in the filthy city, is now back-to-nature in the healthy surroundings of the outdoor farm. SICK recently made a study of the profound changes in the hippie way of life because of this migration. Here then, are the results of our report, which we call...

A LOOK AT HIPPIE COMMUNES

Script by Paul Laikin

Art by John Costanza

PHOTOGRAPH BY AL MOULDY

NOTE STARTLING CHANGES IN HIPPIE WAY OF LIFE

THE OLD HIPPIE SCENE
ON A DIRTY CITY STREET

THE NEW HIPPIE SCENE
ON A CLEAN COMMUNAL FARM

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CITY AND COMMUNAL LIFE IS ENORMOUS

IN THE CITY apartments were too small and there was very little room for parties

BLOW IN VAN GOGH'S EAR AND IT'LL GO TO HIS HEAD

ON COMMUNES the hippie swingers take full advantage of the ample space provided

IN THE CITY the noise was so intense that you found it impossible to meditate

ON COMMUNES it is so peaceful and quiet that you can't help but sit and think

SHARE ON THE NAKED TRUTH

IN THE CITY there was always the feeling of being closed-in and restricted

ON COMMUNES you are able to move around freely wherever you want to wander

COMMUNAL LIFE HAS A GREAT MANY SOCIAL ADVANTAGES

IF LET RICHMICK MARRIED LEE MARVIN SH'D HE LEE MARVIN!

A definite advantage over city living is the elimination of the garbage problem

There is also no problem of water shortage since nobody ever takes a shower

Healthier minds and bodies will result as there is none of the city air pollution

Newer resources and commodities will arise as there is tremendous room to experiment

Here we see some of the basic crops planted by hippies, as they get close to the soil

Here we see, as a result of this earthy living, some have gotten even closer to the soil

A political cartoon by Tom Swick. The scene is set in a rural landscape with a barn on the right and a distant town on the left. A man in a dark suit and tie is running away from the viewer towards the left. He carries a briefcase in his right hand and a small object in his left. Behind him, a large, diverse group of people is chasing him. Some individuals in the crowd hold signs; one prominent sign reads "WYOMING OR BUST", and another further back says "HIPPIS HAVEN". To the right, a barn with a chicken perched on its roof stands with its double doors open. In the foreground, a cow lies on the ground with a thought bubble containing a question mark above its head. A metal trash can lies tipped over nearby. The cartoon is signed "SWICK" in the bottom right corner.

50

We
gotta dump
Agnew!

SPECIAL BONUS CUTOUTS

Be different . . . be daring . . . be the first in your neighborhood to wear . . .

SQUARE BUTTONS

I'M NOT THAT KIND OF A GIRL

BERT
PARKS FAN CLUB

LET'S CUT
A RUG

I'M HEP
!

I VACATIONED
IN THE BRONX

CELEBRATE ARBOR DAY

HI, CUTIE
!

I LOVE
MY WIFE
BUT OH, YOU KID!

I READ
SICK